

Due to lack of available air transport to a growing number of countries as authorities restrict the movement of people across borders, or in some cases, a suspension of in country postal operations; we have suspended international deliveries. Where this is the case, we are strongly advising our customers against sending items to these destinations, for the time being.

Which countries are currently affected?

Albania	Cuba	Moldova	Sri Lanka
Armenia	Djibouti	Montenegro	Taiwan
Bermuda	Ecuador	New Zealand	Tanzania (DAR)
Bosnia	French Polynesia	Peru	Tunisia
Caribbean Islands (BVI)	Kuwait	Philippines	Turks & Caicos
Caribbean Islands – Dominican Republic	Lebanon	Samoa	Venezuela
Caribbean Islands –Haiti	Macedonia	South Africa	Zimbabwe
Cayman Islands	Mauritania	South Korea

Advice to Customers

- We're strongly recommending that customers do not send items to these countries from today and for the time being
- Other Royal Mail services, including those to the USA, China and Australia and many other countries remain operational.
- Items for these destinations already posted will be processed or held, depending on the availability of outlets to countries.
- This advice and links to information will shortly be available online and on our shipping systems. Where possible, we're also removing these destinations as options on shipping systems.

The information about our suspensions is being updated on the International Incident Bulletin. Here you'll find information about this as well as our services to other countries, not affected by these suspensions. Please view our International Incidents page here.